

Living expressive arts

Expressive Art in French like no other

Presents

Caro Cloutier, a fun, creative multidisciplinary artist and expressive art therapist in:

‘Expressive Art Classes, en français’

for French Immersion students. Children will explore, express and learn new artistic modalities in French. During the classes, the children choose to draw, paint, sculpt, sound, create music, enact theatre games and/or dance / movement through out the week(s).

Spring Session - Many hands-on projects with seasonal themes will be explored

1) After school classes:

9 Tuesdays, starting April 10- ending June 5/07

Time: 4:30-6:00 p.m.

Cost: $100.00 (before March 26) Materials included
$110.00 (after March 26)

Ages: 7-12

2) Saturday morning:

7 classes, starting April 28- ending June 9/07

Time: 10:00am-12:00 p.m.

Cost: $105.00 (before March 26) Materials included
$117.00 (after March 26)

Ages: 4-6

3) Saturday afternoon:

7 classes, starting April 28- ending June 9/07

Time: 1:00pm-3:00 p.m.

Cost: $105.00 (before March 26) Materials included
$117.00 (after March 26)

Ages: 7-12

Location: Living Expressive Art Studios, 51 Beaucourt Road, West Hamilton

Caro Cloutier draws on her multidisciplinary artistic background having graduated both from a university art program and an expressive art therapy program. She also draws from her 4 years of working as an expressive art therapist specifically working with children in Toronto. She is part-time faculty at the Dundas Valley School of Art. She interweaves her passion for art-making and French education to bring a new, exciting and fun way to explore art-making ‘en français’.

Visit www.carocloutier.com or call (905) 526-9867